PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in April 2001.

Anthony J. Bogdanovich, Saint Germain – Real Estate Broker. The Real Estate Board reprimanded Anthony Bogdanovich for failing to diligently exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services and for locating property boundary lines without a license as a land surveyor. Bogdanovich was ordered to complete prelicensing education in contracts, business ethics and consumer protection. Bogdanovich agreed to the order. [Case no. LS0005171REB]

Hung V. Bui, Pewaukee - Cosmetology. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Hung Bui, owner of Cheri Nails in Milwaukee, to pay a forfeiture of $4,400. The Board found that Bui had changed the location of Cheri Nails without licensing the new location. Manicurists in the salon were working without current licenses and material and equipment were not maintained or stored properly. Bui agreed to the order. [LS0104021BAC]

Larry F. Buzzell and Cayman Realty, Inc., West Allis – Real Estate. The Real Estate Board revoked the real estate broker's licenses of Larry F. Buzzell and Cayman Realty, Inc. Buzzell did not disclose known building foundation defects to buyers, violated the city building code and provided services to consumers without a written agency agreement. Buzzell and Cayman agreed to the revocation.][LS0104191REB]

Tami M. Earley, Green Bay – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Earley for attempting to obtain medication for herself by presenting a prescription order to a pharmacy using the name and DEA number of a co-worker. The board ordered Early to arrange for her employer to file reports on her performance. Early must complete training in a course on nursing ethics. Earley agreed to the order. [LS0104061 NUR]

Carmella Jenkins, Madison – Barbering and Cosmetology. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board issued an order requiring Carmella Jenkins to surrender the establishment license for Southern Cuts & Nails. An inspection found that equipment was not properly maintained and the salon was not staffed according to state regulations. Jenkins agreed to surrender the license for Southern Cuts & Nails. [LS0104022BAC]

Terrance L. Larson, Lodi – Registered Nurse. Larson took insulin for his own use from the stock supply of his employer, Mendota Mental Health. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Larson, ordered him to complete ethics training and limited his license. Larson agreed to accept the discipline. [LS0104062NUR]

Conway McLean, Forest Park, Illinois – Podiatrist. The Podiatrists Affiliated Credentialing Board issued an order accepting the surrender of the license of Conway McLean. The Board's action follows a disciplinary action commenced by the Iowa Board of Podiatry Examiners against McLean and was resolved by a settlement agreement. [LS0010102POD]

Regis Corporation, Minneapolis, Minnesota – Barbering and Cosmetology; Jo Ann M. Kulaziewicz, manager; Vickie Maynard, manager; Shirley A. Weber, manager; Thespo Sotirin, practitioner; Linda Vanaacken, practitioner – Wauwatosa. Regis Corporation owns Regis Salon #4889, located at 2500 North Mayfair Road M-185 in Wauwatosa. In actions against the parties listed, the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board found that workstation conditions at Regis Salon #4889 did not meet sanitation requirements and that some employees working at the Wauwatosa location did not have current licenses. The Board ordered Regis Corporation and the listed managers and practitioners to pay forfeitures. The orders against Regis Corporation and its employees were issued by consent. [LS0104023BAC, LS0104024BAC, LS0104025BAC, LS0104026BAC, LS0104027BAC, LS0104028BAC]

Hector Rodriguez, and Rapid Response Public Safety, Milwaukee – Private Detective. The Department of Regulation and Licensing found that Rodriguez operated Rapid Response Public Safety as a private detective agency after the licenses of both Rodriguez and Rapid Response had expired. The Department issued an order prohibiting Hector Rodriguez and Rapid Response from continuing to engage in unlicensed activities. Rodriguez did not contest the action taken by the Department. [LS0102191RAL]

David L. Schoonhoven, Oostburg – Marriage and Family Therapist. The Marriage and Family Therapists Section of the Examining Board of Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists and Professional Counselors accepted the surrender of David Schoonhoven's license as a marriage and family therapist. The Section found that Schoonhoven had violated legal practice standards relating to dual relationships, conflicts of interest and negligent practice. [LS0104262MFT]

William A. Shearman, Lake Nebagamon – Land Surveyor. The Land Surveyors Section of the Examining Board Architects, Landscape Architects, Professional Engineers, Designers and Land Surveyors revoked the license of William Shearman and ordered payment of costs. Shearman failed to complete work for clients and practiced land surveying after his license had expired. Shearman agreed to the Board's order. [LS0103271LSR]

Huong Ly Thi Vo Tran, Rockford, Illinois – Manicurist. The Department of Regulation and Licensing issued an order prohibiting Huong Ly Thi Vo Tran from engaging in manicuring until she obtains a license. [LS0102055UNL]
